

BUSINESS FOR SA: GUIDANCE NOTE

16 December 2020

1. Introduction

- 1.1 On 14 December 2020, five days after Health Minister Dr Zweli Mkhize had confirmed a second wave of coronavirus infections in South Africa, President Cyril Ramaphosa announced the immediate implementation of further measures to attempt to contain the spread of the virus. His announcement was followed by promulgation of an amendment to the Alert Level (AL) 1 Regulations (the Amended AL1 Regulations), which took effect immediately and will remain in place until 3 January 2021.
- 1.2 Under the Amended AL1 Regulations, further restrictions have been imposed as the festive season approaches. In what follows, we outline the Amended AL1 Regulations in so far as they differ from the AL1 Regulations.

2. Movement of persons and gatherings

- 2.1 The Amended AL1 Regulations impose an extended daily curfew between 23h00 and 04h00. Employees required to work during these hours must be provided with a Form 7 permit, which is the same standard-form work permit required to be issued by the head of an institution (or his or her delegatee) under the AL1 Regulations.<sup>1</sup>
- 2.2 In order to meet the 23h00 curfew, the Amended AL1 Regulations provide that any establishment where a gathering may take place (including all faith-based institutions, restaurants, bars and venues) must close at 22h00 daily.<sup>2</sup> They also expand on the mandatory protocols required to be observed in public places, and in particular the wearing of face masks.<sup>3</sup> Entry into public places and the use of public transport remains prohibited if a mask is not worn, regardless of whether the public place is in- or outdoors. Employers may not permit any employee to enter the employment premises or perform any of his or her duties unless he or she is wearing a mask.
- 2.3 Every business premises is required to determine how many people its available area of floor space can accommodate while allowing for a distance between persons of 1,5 meters. A failure to do so is an offence, for which one is liable to a fine and/or imprisonment of up to six months on conviction. Furthermore, business premises must ensure that this distance can be and is maintained between persons queueing in or outside the business premises, ensure that hand sanitisers are available for both customers and employees, and assign an employee to ensure compliance with physical distancing, use of hand sanitisers and compliance with directions to prevent exposure to COVID-19.
- 2.4 All employers must adopt measures to promote physical distancing of employees, which include:

5. Conclusion

With the rate of new coronavirus infections and deaths on the rise, it is incumbent on businesses to cooperate fully with health and safety protocols to protect both their customers and employees and to avoid the potential consequences of non-compliance. While businesses should already have in place the measures required under the Amended AL1 Regulations, the emphasis is now on strict compliance and it appears that enforcement will become more stringent.
